

OPTIMA  JURIS™
THE INTERNATIONAL DEPOSITION AGENCY

HOW TO SCHEDULE A DEPOSITION IN NORWAY

NORWAY

DEPO BASICS

When it's time to schedule your deposition in Norway, we want you to have the most comprehensive information available at your fingertips. That is why our experts have put together this easy-to-follow guide on setting up a deposition in Norway. First, let's answer some of the most important questions:

1

Are there any restrictions on holding a U.S. depo in Norway?

Voluntary depositions of willing witnesses is permitted regardless of the nationality of the witness. However, prior permission from the Norwegian Central Authority for the Hague Evidence Convention is required. This is obtained by the U.S. Embassy. It is advisable to ask the embassy to request permission of the Norwegian Central Authority three or four weeks prior to the desired deposition date.

2

Can depositions in Norway take place at any venue?

Once permission is received, depositions in Norway can take place at the venue of your choosing, whether that be a hotel, law firm office, conference room, or videoconferencing facility.

3

Does a U.S. passport holder need a visa to enter Norway?

U.S. passport holders may enter Norway for up to 90 days for tourist or business purposes without a visa.

4

How early should we plan for a depo in Norway?

Give yourself a minimum of 4 weeks to plan. The further you plan ahead, the more likely it is that you'll be able to locate and book the right professionals for your deposition.

5

Are there court reporters in Europe for U.S. depositions?

Optima Juris has region-based court reporters for depositions in Norway, which means lower travel costs for you.

6

Depo Options: should the attorney attend the depo in person or remotely?

Attending Deposition In-Person

Attorneys, court reporters, legal videographers, and/or deposition interpreters travel to the location of the witness.

Advantages:

Typically this an ideal scenario to get the clearest record and you are less likely to encounter technical issues.

Disadvantages:

Travel costs can add up quickly.

Videoconference Facility

Attorneys participate remotely at a videoconference facility. Reporter, videographer, and interpreter should attend deposition with the witness.

Advantages:

Videoconferencing offers the most reliable remote connection and allows attorneys to see the witness while not having to travel to the deposition destination.

Disadvantages:

Videoconference facilities are expensive. Costs typically fall within the USD $400 per-hour range.

DepoAnywhere™ Web-based Videoconferencing

Attorneys participate remotely via a web-based videoconference solution that connects on any laptop, smartphone or tablet.*

Advantages:

Cost-effective solution for minor witnesses, sworn statements, or when your budget is really tight. DepoAnywhere™ includes a backup telephone dial-in feature, and an Optima Juris team member to monitor your connection to provide real-time help.

Disadvantages:

Remote connections can be prone to pauses, interruptions, and/or connection lost due to network issues.

*For the best and clearest record we always recommend that the court reporter, videographer and interpreter be physically present with the witness.

7

How can we swear in a witness outside of the U.S.?

When attorneys need to swear in witnesses abroad, the time-honored solution is for both sides to stipulate on the record that the court reporter can swear in the witness. Using a U.S. certified court reporter is not enough, because notary powers do not apply when they venture outside of U.S. territory. Stipulating on the record is an excellent solution and it works in all cases, with both U.S. certified and foreign certified reporters (i.e.: British or Canadian reporters). Stipulating on the record is the easiest way to assure the admissibility of your witness's testimony.

WATCH VIDEO

Every situation, covered

Whether you're an attorney, paralegal, or a court reporting firm looking to set up an international depo, we've got your back.

Ian Hardy
CEO & Founder

Kimberlee Castro
Director of Scheduling

Scheduling or Questions?

Call Kimberlee directly

949.433.4529

kcastro@optimajuris.com

Schedule Depo

Essential travel information for Norway

Traveling to Norway for a deposition? Get the most out of your visit by brushing up on the culture with these useful travel tips.

NK CURRENCY

Norway uses the Norwegian krone. Before you leave, notify your bank, credit card company, or other financial institutions that you are going overseas.

% GENERAL TIPPING

Tipping in Norway is not common. Hotel staff in Norway are well paid so tipping in hotels is extremely uncommon. Most Norwegians carry their own bags so porters are only found at the top hotels and they still won't expect a tip. Tipping hotel maids is also not really done in Norway.

MAJOR AIRPORT

Oslo Airport Gardermoen, OSL

NORWAY DEPO CHECKLIST

Optima Juris' comprehensive checklist for your deposition in Norway.

When scheduling an international deposition, we ideally recommend getting started four to six weeks in advance. Of course, it's possible to work within a much shorter timeframe, just keep in mind you need to allow sufficient time for noticing your witness, arranging for resources on the ground (like court reporters, interpreters, conference rooms), and planning travel.

Getting there

3-1 weeks before your deposition

- ☐ If the attorney is traveling, be sure to make all travel arrangements, including air, hotel, and any travel insurance or special shipping arrangements for the deposition exhibits. The earlier you book your travel, the cheaper it will be.
- ☐ Prepare and send your deposition notices.
- ☐ Submit any relevant documents to the case that you would like the team to review prior to the deposition.

DISCLAIMER: The authors of this guide are not attorneys. The information set forth in the guide is merely an overview based solely on the author's practical experience and should not be considered legal advice. Optima Juris is not responsible for any information, advice, guidance, or suggestions offered on our guide, or by our employees or contractors. Such information is provided "as is" and does not constitute expert legal opinion. Attorneys and their representatives must do the necessary legal research before making any decisions or binding arrangements with respect to depositions or any Optima Juris services they may hire.

THE INTERNATIONAL DEPO GUIDE™ is protected by copyright, trademark and/or other forms of intellectual property. These laws protect Optima Juris against the unauthorized use of both identical reproductions and also confusingly similar variations and modifications.

Plan ahead

4 weeks before your deposition

- ☐ Determine whether the witness in question is willing to be deposed. If the witness is willing, mutual stipulation of the parties can allow for depositions to be planned quickly. If the witness is unwilling, contact us for your options.
- ☐ Contact the U.S. embassy in Norway to request permission of the Norwegian Central Authority three or four weeks prior to the desired deposition date.
- ☐ Determine which deposition services will be required:
 - ☐ Court reporter (realtime or standard delivery)
 - ☐ Legal videographer
 - ☐ Deposition interpreter (determine language pair needed)
- ☐ Determine where your deposition will take place:
 - ☐ Hotel or conference room
 - ☐ Videoconferencing facility
 - ☐ Web-based videoconferencing (Optima Juris DepoAnywhere™)
- ☐ Contact Optima Juris to book your reporter and any other depositions services you require.

That's it

Everything has been set...

- ☐ Upon conclusion of the deposition, the attorney will place their orders with the court reporter for the transcript and/or video copies.
- ☐ Submit payment for transcripts and video, and await the arrival of your order.
- ☐ You deserve a pat on the back - your international depo went off without a hitch. Bravo!